

Simple criterion for symmetric/selfish vs. permutation test of symmetry

Each marker represents one individual.
The light shaded area covers all the individuals classified as symmetric in the main paper.